HOLMAN'S
Liver and Stomach Pad
Cures without Medicine.

An efficacious remedy for all diseases having heir origin in a torpid liver and diseased stomach, has been discovered in the Holman Liver Pad. The inventor of this boon to suffering humanity was himself a victim of chronic disease, and having tried medicines in vain, conceived the idea of an external remedy. The Pad applied immediately over the vitals and the centre of the nervous system, absorbs all poisons and diffuses a vegetable tonic throughout the entire system through the pores and by means of the circulation. The torpidity of the liver is thus removed, the tone of the stomach restored, and the organs resume their wonted functions. Finding that the principle worked successfully in his own case, the discovery was made public, and thousands have since tried it with the most beneficial results. The names of a large number of well known citizens in all parts of the country, who owe their restoration to health to the Liver Pad, attest the genuineness of this great invention. It requires no internal medicines: it is simple, painless, and rapid in its operations, applicable to children as well as adults of both sexes, and in case there should be no disease in the system, remains passive, doing no harm. Persons who are incredulous as to the value of this Pad, will do well to send for a pamphlet to the Agency.

FORGERY AND PIRACY

PARRY AND CO.

Beg to caution the public that the TRADE MARKS of many of the Firms they represent are PIRATED and by this means SPURIOUS and WORTHLESS goods are foisted on purchasers, instead of the GENUINE articles.
The SHAM labels are wonderfully well got up to fulfil their nefarious mission.
Some of them bear a forgery of manufacturer's signature, others have apocryphal signatures, one or two letters being altered in so artistic a manner as almost to defy detection. Whilst many bear NO NAME whatever, but in general appearance closely resemble the authentic labels.
We have taken LEGAL PROCEEDINGS, and trust that the heavy penalties accorded under the Trade Mark Law will put a stop to FORGERY and PIRACY
The following particulars may prevent many from being duped by dishonest dealers as they will enable the purchaser to detect imitations, and insist on obtaining the genuine articles—
Crosse and Blackwell. Pickles
See that the well known white and gold arched top label bearing their name and address (21 Soho-Square, London) is on the bottle, and also look for this name and address on top and signature on side of capsule, without one are genuine.
JAMS and JELLIES of this famous brand also bear C and B.'s name on labels.
FRENCH CAPERS. Legitimate only when C. & B.'s name and address is found on label and capsule; avoid similar bottles which bear NO NAME on label or capsule.
Arthur Guinness Son & Co.'s Extra Stout
BEWARE of a very well executed and most dangerous imitation of the famous HARP LABEL. This even bears a FORGERY of GUINNESS' SIGNATURE as well as PIRACY of the TRADE-MARK.
PIG BRAND STOUT
None is legitimate without the signature of the proprietors (Messrs William Edmonds Jr & Co.) on capsule, their label on side and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on neck of Bottle.
Bull Dog, bottling of Bass & Co.'s Pale Ale
Genuine only when the bottle bears Messrs BASS & Co.'s world renowned RED TRIANGLE trade label on one side, Messrs. READ BROS.'S BULL DOG LABEL on the other and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on the neck.
Washington Morton and Alfred Morton & Co.'s
Celebrated WINES & FINE CHAMPAGNE BRANDIES. Every bottle of the genuine bears their name on capsule, cork and label, and our signature as SOLE AGENTS at foot of the latter.
Kimmel's Brown Windsor Soap
Each cake of the genuine has the maker's name moulded on one side and the words SOLE AGENTS PARRY & Co. Buenos Aires, on the other.
Lea and Perrins Sauce
The label on EVERY bottle of the genuine WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE bears the signature LEA & PERRINS and OUR name amongst the list of WHOLE SALE AGENTS.
Colman's Mustard, Corn Flour Blue, Starch
None of these are genuine unless they bear the BULLS HEAD Trade Mark. Inferior goods packed and labelled in a manner calculated to deceive, are freely offered in the most shameless manner. Ask for and see that you get J & J COLMAN'S genuine productions which all bear their name, Trade Mark BULL'S HEAD and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS for this Republic.
Angostura Bitters
The market is INUNDATED with immitations, which are WORTHLESS and INJURIOUS. Every bottle of the genuine article bears on the neck our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.
Epps's Breakfast Cocoa and Chocolate
Every packet of the legitimate article bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.
Eugene Clicquot's Champagne
Each bottle of this renowned brand bears the registered trade label of the proprietor and our SIGNATURE LABEL AS SOLE AGENTS.
Old Tom Gin
Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S celebrated cordial bears their signature label and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.
Invalid Port
GREAT ATTENTION and care have been dedicated by Messrs BOORD & SON to this SPECIALITY, and we can confidently recommend it.
Fine Pale Sherry
Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S well know white label bears also our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS. As an agreeable light ECONOMICAL dinner wine, it is not to be excelled.
Lorne Whisky
Has an enviable reputation all over the world: every bottle of this PURE HIGHLAND WHISKY bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.
Red Heart Rum
Justly celebrated for its great age, purity and other excellent qualities and specially recommended as a preventive for CHOLERA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLD &tc. is genuine only when capsules are stamped and the corks branded HENRY WHITE & Co, and when each bottle bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS above the Red Heart label.
Real Hollands Pig Brand
Imported by us and guaranteed of superior quality. Each bottle bears our guarantee RED AND WHITE label.
Keiller's Lozenges, Drops and Confectionery
So justly appreciated here, bear on every tin, packet, bottle, &c our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.
Borwick's Baking Powder
Every packet or drum bears our SPECIAL LABEL as SOLE AGENTS.
Sublime Tuscany Olive Oil
SAMUEL RAE & CO, LEGHORN. This famous brand is guaranteed a PURE article every bottle and tin bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label.
Nelson's Improved Brilliant Gelatine
A superior and economical preparation for jellies, blanc mange, soups, gravies, &c. Jellies made with the greatest facility in a few minutes possessing the whole of the nutriment without the impurities of the calvesfoot. Each genuine packet bears the signature of GEORGE NELSON and our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.
Bumsted's Royal British Table Salt
This refined article is obtained from natural and pure brine springs and is vastly superior to the ordinary quality. Each bottle bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label in the CENTRE of that of the manufacturer.
Anglo Bavarian Ale
VIENNA 1873, FIRST CLASS PRIZE. GOLD MEDAL PARIS, 1878. To those accustomed to drink GERMAN ALE we strongly recommend this light and pleasant beverage.
Champagne Cider,
HENLEY & SON'S celebrated brand. Each bottle bears the RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.
Tea.
We guarantee all our brands PURE and of the VERY BEST QUALITY, and caution the public against receiving any boxes that have been OPENED and the LEADS CUT, as we know that our empty packages are REFILLED WITH INFERIOR MIXTURES and offered for sale as genuine. Each box bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label.
Attention.
Notwithstanding the HEAVY PENALTIES inflicted by the Trade Mark Law, individuals will persist in FORGING the signatures and IMITATING the Trade Marks of CELEBRATED AND WELL-KNOWN manufacturers NON-RESIDENT in this country, whilst they are very chary and frightened of doing so in the case of a firm living on the spot. We therefore strongly advise the public to take the goods for which we are Agents ONLY when they bear OUR LABELS.

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1880.

OUR NEIGHBOURS.

If there be anything in the old adage that 'coming events cast their shadows before,' it is greatly to be feared that our estimable neighbours in the Banda Oriental are about to emerge from the dead calm haven of peace, which the energetic rule of Colonel Latorre procured for them for the past four years, to be again sucked into the mælstrom of political and pecuniary struggles.

The voluntary abandonment of power by a man who has proved himself so capable of governing as Colonel Latorre, is an event so rare in the political history of the world, and especially in that of republics, that conjecture as to his real motives for such a step are quite unprofitable: the apparent one, that his countrymen 'are quite ungovernable,' hardly avails with a man who has governed them so well and given them the first chance they have had of extrication from the crushing weight of evils which misgovernment had bequeathed to them. But, whether the far-seeing Dictator has flung up the helm of the vessel of State for the same reason that induces rats to leave a sinking ship, or that he is tired of public life, or that he has despaired of the hard task he set himself, his retirement has so much unsettled things in the sister Republic, that its friends are again in the deepest anxiety for its future. It is most unfortunate that political distrust should again spring up at this moment, as the great revival in Europe of the markets for River Plate products is opening a new era for these countries, and the estancieros and hacendados of Banda Oriental have fully participated in the splendid profits which the reaction in Europe has this year poured into the Plate; and a few years more of peace might have restored the Uruguay Republic to solvency and permanent order.

There is nothing to be said against President Vidal and the majority of the Ministers whom he has chosen to share with him the burdensome honour of governing our ungovernable neighbours: the chief danger is that they will prove to be 'not strong enough for the place;' and, indeed, the rocks ahead are so numerous and jagged, and some of the signs of the times so portentous, that the most enthusiastic and well-meaning patriot may well feel nervous. That mischief is brewing is but too apparent. The insignificant scuffle near Santa Rosa, reported yesterday, in which some seven men were killed, is not much of itself, and the invading patriots are as likely to have been a pack of marauders as 'saviours of society;' but they are ready to hand us an instrument for more influential agitators, who are by no means an extinct race in the Uruguay Republic. More serious signs of the times still are the desperate scramble for office by men of all parties while President Vidal was selecting his Cabinet, and the wholesale resignation by the Senators and Deputies of the Republic; the inference is that they smell danger in the wind. Again, the exiled Orientales in this country are beginning to move, and have issued a fervent appeal to their countrymen, overflowing with that patriotism which those well versed in the political dictionary of South America can interpret without our assistance.

But by far the most disheartening feature in the situation of the B. Oriental is the chronic depression in trade and business, which nothing seems able to remove: The bow seems broken, and all the measures adopted to restore its elasticity have as yet proved futile. The memoria just issued by the Uruguayan Minister of Finance, Sr Berro, reveals a state of things which we have at present only space enough to glance at, but a glance is sufficient to show that the financial situation on the other side of the river is anything but promising. H.E. gives the Public Debt of the country at 47,861,000 Nat. Dollars, to which must be added the Deuda Francesa 1,940,000 Dollars, acknowledged by the Latorre Government, and the service of which begins this year: then there is, 'en gestion' a Brazilian Debt of $3,168,000 money lent, and a host of other 'promises to pay' what is owing to the German-Belgian Bank, the Commercial and London Banks, the Water Works Company, the Higueritas Railways, large sums due by the 'Juntas,' and for salaries over due to Government employees, and, last not least, the Floating Debt and the Nationalized Paper money, this last involving an annual charge of $180,000, and the service of the Home and Foreign Debts swallowing $2,016,000.

Could the Banda Oriental hope to enjoy for any reasonable length of time, say even 10 or 15 years, uninterrupted peace and sound government, at its expiration she might possibly be able to parody the Prime Minister of England and call the above formidable list of obligations 'a fleabite', but, as matters now stand, a dragon's tooth could not be more bitter to contemplate. In face of all this, we have still another depressing fact, viz., that in the month of January last, at the height of the best season the River Plate has known for years, the receipts of all the Custom Houses in the Banda Oriental produced together only $ f.326,000!!

There is in such figures an ominously Paraguayan ring which should be a warning to every Oriental who loves his country, to keep his hand from anything approaching another game of revolution, at least till the rocks now ahead are weathered. The Santa Rosa affair is a contemptible straw, but it shows how the wind blows: Let that wind once more attain the force of a storm of civil strife, and the fall of Banda Oriental must inevitably be like Lucifer's.

FAREWELL ADDRESS TO THE SCOTCH SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

This interesting ceremony took place in the school-room at the Scotch Church, on the 30th inst., and was delivered by Mr. Thomas Drysdale to the teachers and children of the Sunday-school, on the occasion of his being about to leave for England. The arrangements for Mr. Drysdale's reception had been carefully planned by the Secretary and teachers; the children thronged the gallery at 7.30 p.m. precisely, and by 8 o'clock the school-room was filled to overflowing by the parents and other lady and gentlemen visitors. Among the latter we noticed Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Methven, and our old friend Mr. Davidson, who, although one of our oldest English residents here, is fresh from the brown heath and shaggy woods, and who seemed agreeably affected by the sight of that sea of happy faces, no doubt inwardly recalling Burns's beautiful and patriotic lines: 'From scenes like these old Scotia's grandeur springs, which makes her loved at home, revered abroad.'

The programme was opened by the children singing one of their beautiful hymns, led by Miss Gallagher, who kindly presided at the harmonium. It was joined by all present with a sweetness and pathos worthy of the memory of Sankey.

Prayer was then offered by their worthy Pastor, Rev. Mr. Smith, when Mr. Drysdale proceeded with his stirring address, first to the teachers, who listened to his words with profound respect, while he kindly spoke to them of the noble work in which they had voluntarily engaged, and assured them that any sacrifice they could make of their time and talents would be amply repaid by the inward satisfaction that they had 'done the right.'

The programme was agreeably interspersed with songs and magic lantern views, this latter being divided into two parts, one sacred and the other secular; the working of the machinery being undertaken by Mr. Forrester, who has so kindly lent his valuable aid on many previous occasions, and assisted by the Secretary, Mr. Farrar, who, in his usual interesting and graphic style, explained, to the admiration of the plastic infant mind, the affecting story of Joseph and his Brethren, and the wonderful adventures of Robinson Crusoe.

Then followed Mr. Drysdale's kind and encouraging address to the children; he spoke to them of obedience to their parents, and the promise of a long and happy life as the reward. He hoped they would always listen to their Pastor and teachers with the love and respect of little children, and thus they would grow up to be good and useful men and women. He concluded his address by assuring them that he had spent a very happy time among them in the Sunday-school; that he loved them, and that he loved their work. The children conducted themselves with that attention and decorum for which they have long been justly famed, reflecting credit on their worthy Pastor and teachers for their careful training.

Mr. Dodds, on behalf of the Sunday School, tendered to Mr. Drysdale the heartfelt thanks of the children and teachers for all that he had done for them in the past, and for all that he anticipated doing for them in the future; and remarked that, although they had nothing else to offer him but their thanks, Mr. Drysdale would receive this as the widow's mite—their all. He wished him a happy meeting with his family, and assured him of a warm welcome on his return among us.

The Rev. Mr. Smith, in a few closing remarks, thanked Mr. Drysdale for his valued and feeling address—the teachers for their valuable assistance in making arrangements for so pleasant an evening. He thanked the parents and strangers for their encouraging presence: spoke a few kindly words of commendation, to the children for their strict attention to discipline, and pronounced the Benediction over one of those happy social scenes which sweeten the cares of everyday life.

Mr. Drysdale has endeared himself to the Sunday School by the deep interest he has long taken in its welfare, and his spirit of active benevolence towards it and kindred institutions, which others in the same sphere would do well to imitate.

WANDERINGS IN EUROPE.

(By a young Argentine).

The weather was foggy and dreary as the train slowly passed through the deserted plains and entered the Eternal City. In the distance one sees the hundreds of spires and cupolas of the many temples in Rome, now the Christian, formerly the Pagan city 'par excellence.' Entering the town, I see the old wall, the 'civitta vecchia,' a lasting proof of Roman workmanship; the aqueduct is also there, still a model for architects of the future. The scholar hails Rome with pleasure; here one sees the scenes of Ovid's light verses and Horace's polished Sapphic and Æolic lines. The images of great men past are roused as if by magic wand, and none can walk along the streets with indifference when he stops in an 'angiportu' or stumbles perhaps over the very block where the exile to the Getae sat singing to Corinna.

Here I admire Trajan's column, the Roman Basilisk, Septimius Severi's archway. Only eight pillars remain of Saturn's temple; the Capitol embodies the history of a world and records the wreck of a race. I walked along the Via Sacra, the road Pompey proudly marched over. Julius Cæsar many a time ascended here the Capitol. It was on this road his noble and great enemy, the victim of Alesia, Vercingetorix, amidst the scoffs and jeers of a proud populace, chained to his triumphal chariot, witnessed the grandeur of a people and suffered the inhumanity of a victor. The tribunes of the Centuriones are near by. There is the Julia Ruin.

I visited the remains of the Temple of Castor and Pollux, of Romulus and Remus; the Temple of Peace, built by the Jews, under Vespasian. The Titus Arco and the Baths are museums themselves. I greatly admired what remains of the mosaic work.

I, naturally, visited the Coliseo, which is a piece of old Rome's heart; the ruin is stupendous. I greatly admired the obelisks, especially those given by fair Cleopatra to Pompey and Julius Cæsar. Antony needed none; he had too many in Egypt.

I left Rome for Pompeii and Herculaneum, where to my delight I could form an idea of how the old Romans lived. It is astonishing to see how many things, especially paintings, have been kept intact for seventeen centuries. The very same day I visited the Vesuvius, which is still slightly in eruption; another cone, surrounded with lava, has risen in the old crater, and an eruption is greatly feared, as they are short of water in Naples, an infallible sign, it is said. I remained 25 minutes in the crater, rather amused at seeing the stones hurled in the air by the volcano. The descent of the Vesuvius is decidedly much easier than the ascent. The ashes produce a kind of sand, very like the 'arena' of the Banda Oriental. The next day the lava began to flow down the sides of the volcano and all ascent was impossible. Some time or another Naples will disappear under the lava.

I took passage in a small steamer to the Island of Capri, to visit the well-known grotto. The beauties of the Bay of Naples are really unrivalled. The Island of Capri is a pearl in the Mediterranean; the grotto is worth seeing.

I visited the principal monuments of Naples, not excepting its far-famed Opera House, San Carlos. I witnessed Carnival here; the principal amusement consists in pelting bouquets of flowers, which often occasion much pain. This is really a barbarous amusement when compared with our innocent 'pomito' playing.

My next letter shall be from Firenze, the cradle of art and civilization of the middle-ages. I intend also visiting Venice. I must re-visit Paris before I leave Europe.

I miss the Buenos Ayres Carnival: it is more refined and polished than the brutal manner with which it is carried on here in Naples. Tomorrow I leave Naples.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

March 4th.

Our Nihilist question continues to be exciting, and it has had the good fortune to turn up when ordinary events were about as dull as Turkish reforms or a Bonapartist demonstration.

The prisoner is very amiable towards the examining judge; to please whom, if required, Hartmann will call himself Mayer or vice versa, or even admit that he has been associated, but outside France, in plots to blow up the Czar, whose despotic rule he detests as much as do the friends of liberty, equality and fraternity. In exchange he demands, that France will make sure, that any material evidence furnished shall be authentic, and next, bearing on the person to whom it may be applied. Public opinion looks as if it was shaping itself in favour of expelling the accused, not surrendering him to immediate execution, as the latter would be thus giving, according to some, the role of France as detective policeman and purveyor to the gibbet for the Czar. Then a few souvenirs not of the sunniest nature are being summoned up respecting his Imperial Majesty: it is remembered that he openly sided with Kaiser William during the hard times of 1870-71: that he threatened Austria with an invasion if she attempted a diversion in favor of the Gauls: that it was to nephew Alexander the Emperor of Germany returned thanks—next in order after the god of battles, for his crowning victories, and this gush was responded to by the Czar's toasting publicly at a banquet, to the heroes of the invading armies, and breaking his glass as a proof that his love for Germany would be as lasting as it was profoundly sincere, It is very curious that although the prisoner's lodgings were searched within half an hour after his arrest, no compromising documents were found among his papers: not a receipted bill for dynamite, iron wire, or electric batteries, nor even one of those Nihilist proclamations that make the hair stand on end. As Hartmann is a student, though aged 33—is not our whole life but schooldays prolonged—the French corporation of students have taken his case in hand: they petition every person in high position, save the Minister of Police and the Russian Ambassador: Victor Hugo is one of theirs, and shakes their hands cordially: M. Gambetta applied his opportunism to a deputation of the schools: the students even organised a public meeting to protest against the extradition of Hartmann, until Russia was at least equal to Switzerland or England in point of civilization as to fair jurisprudence. This good natured request would compel the interested individual to live as long as Methuselah or Blanqui. Not much importance is attached to the threatening letters from Nihilists addressed to certain French officials, as to what they may expect in case Hartmann be delivered to the inquisition and the gibbet: these are viewed as practical jokes. Were President Grevy even to receive a notice that at seven o'clock by the new electric pillar timepieces, on a certain evening, he would be blown up on sitting down to dinner, not a guest would feel the slightest uneasiness. In France when a diplomatic difficulty is the subject of fun, it ceases to be a difficulty.

A better view of the future of the Continent is gaining ground: it is felt that the uneasiness in Germany is due to the Emperor and Bismarck not being of the same opinion respecting the way Russia ought to be treated, hence, the nomination of Prince Hohenlohe is intended as a kind of buffer between Emperor and Chancellor. As German Ambassador here the Prince was as popular as any accredited agent from Vaterland could be: his salons were well-filled with French society, a happy contrast with the desolation of the days of Comte d'Arnim. Then the Prince knows well, that the last idea in the minds of Frenchmen is war, and that nothing but the most odious provocation could force them to put on the war-paint and feathers. If in their hearts they would not moan at Russia's plaguing Germany, it is as much human nature as if the latter were to cut the nails and wings of the Russian eagle, and thus strengthen the scientific frontiers of British India, and thus gratify a nation on whose dominions the sun never sets.

Senator Schœlcher is the Wilberforce of France; it was by his efforts that slavery in the French colonies was abolished in 1848, another good work of the Revolution of February in that year, and which led, according to a veracious journalist, to England's following in the wake, for France enlightens the world. This same Senator has made an onslaught on the slave-trade in Senegal, alleging that it is even connived at by the French authorities, and making some startling revelations on the faith of an English missionary. This latter was enough to turn the house against the motion blaming the Minister for the Colonies, who from experience asserted that serfage, not slavery, existed: and that the voluntary selling of one's self as a slave, say an 'assistant,' for a fixed period, was a necessity for Senegalian manners and institutions. Outsiders agree with the honorable Senator, that he has had good grounds for his motion, and the ventilation of the matter is a timely caution to all interested.

THE LATE J. MACDONALD, M.D

(From 'The Lancet,' Feb. 7, 1880.

To the list of those of our profession who died at the close of 1879 must be added the name of John Mac Donald M.D., son of Alex MacDonald, Esq., of Lynedale, Isle of Skye, and some mention should be made of the passing away of a valuable life, and one simply sacrificed to a sense of duty.

Educated at Glasgow and at Paris, and having taken his degree of M.D. at the former University in 1862, Dr. MacDonald studied at most of the principal hospitals in Austria and Prussia. It is, however, of his work in Buenos Ayres that we desire to lay some notice before our readers. He arrived there about fourteen years ago. Finding that no doctor could practise within the precincts of the town without a Spanish diploma, and not knowing the Spanish language, he, to acquire it, joined the Argentine army for a year as surgeon, which was then, together with the allied Brazilians, fighting against the Paragnayans commanded by the notorious Lopez. While thus engaged, he was so successful in surgical operations as to be specially noticed by the authorities, by whom he was placed at the head of hospital and ambulance corps of one of the divisions, and raised to the rank of surgeon-major. Returning to Buenos Ayres at the end of a year, he took his diploma, intending to remain there, but a special request from the Commander-in-chief that he would not discontinue his service, accompanied by an expression of a high opinion of their value, appeared to him an appeal to his sense of honor. He remained, therefore, with the army to the close of the war, through continued privation and exposure, and experiencing many narrow escapes; suffering at one time from a severe attack of malarious fever, after having remained for three weeks in a swamp, and not taking off his boots once in that time. In the year 1871 the memorable epidemic of yellow fever broke out at Buenos Ayres. Three medical men only remained—one only, Dr. MacDonald, remained till all was over—in a plague stricken city of some 150,000 inhabitants. Of his devotion to his work some estimate may be formed from the fact that during this fearful epidemic he once attended as many as ninety cases in a single day. Medicine he supplied largely at his own expense; and in many instances death itself did not terminate his services, for he even advanced money to defray the funeral expenses, too often never repaid. The fever lasted some months, during which time Dr MacDonald himself was twice struck down by it. For his services he received almost nothing, abundanty as they had been acknowledged and extolled both by the Government and by the native and the English press. The medal which the Government offered he declined, 'more suo.' It was not in his nature to value such things, even if they could have borne adequate witness, which, of course, they could not, to services of the highest possible order, and to the sacrifice of health gone for ever.

He remained at Buenos Ayres for a few years longer in varying conditions of health. It was hoped that a good constitution and singularly 'plucky' temperament might in time do much to overcome the effects of past severe suffering. But it was not to be so, and when recovery was no longer to be hoped for it was determined in the autumn that Dr. MacDonald should leave for England, in fulfilment of the only remaining hope, that of dying at home. He landed in October exceedingly ill, and Sir W. Jenner diagnosed chronic hepatic inflammation, the result of malarial poison. With great difficulty reaching the Isle of Skye, he died on Dec. 7th, surrounded by nearly all his nearest relatives.

Those who from his early years knew him intimately, whether related to him or not, cannot trust themselves to speak of his nobility of character, his unbounded generosity, his perfect sense of honor. They would rather point to the facts of his life and his death. And when one thinks of that work calmly carried on in the pestilential streets, that heavy burden borne without help, of skill, sympathy, money, and, as the event proved, life itself placed, and knowingly placed, at the disposal of those whom he attended, his figure seems to stand out not unlike that of the hero of the ancient battlefield, and certainly not less glorious.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was rather dull from a news point of view. We often envy our native colleagues, who can keep themselves 'going,' no matter how slow the times are, by lively dissertations on politics 'y otras yerbas,' when we are forced to fall back on the weather and the Standard barometer. Talking of weather, our rheumatic subscribers were right yesterday: it is going to rain.

The news from Montevideo yesterday leads many people to think that the fun is about to re-commence on that side of the river. A band of 'patriots' invaded near Santa Rosa a few days ago and had a brush with the Government troops. The scuffle must have been stiff enough, as four of the invading army were sent to 'kingdom come,' three of the soldiers being killed. It is to be hoped this is not the beginning of another rumpus over the water.

We feel great pleasure in welcoming back to the River Plate two gentlemen who have a wide circle of friends here—Mr John Rorke, who is so well known and esteemed in commercial circles, and his brother Dr Charles Rorke, who comes to settle in this country. The unusually brilliant examinations which Dr. Rorke passed at the Royal College of Surgeons when taking his degrees, and his high reputation in Wigan, where he has recently practised, agur well for his success here.

We regret to hear that Dr Hiron was badly bitten by a dog some nights ago in Calle Brazil. So much for the Cimmerian darkness prevailing down there. The doctor had just left a patient's house when a big cur flew at his leg and fastened on it. Fortunately, Dr Hiron had caustic in his pocket, and he reentered the house and cauterized the wound, which we trust will have no bad consequences.

We call the attention of the Irish Community in town and camp to Mr Patrick Bookey's advertizement in another column.

It is said that the members of the Corporation contemplate resigning 'en masse' in consequence of Governor Tejedor's summary proceeding with Alderman Darquier. We are glad to hear that the Lord Mayor, Mr Guerrico, is rapidly recovering from his long illness, and is able to attend at the Municipality.

The Rev. Father Martin will preach on Sunday next, and also on that day week, at the San Roque Church at 1 o'clock: he will also hear confessions at the Merced Church every morning from 7 o'clock, while he is in town.

Next Monday there will be another Tiro Nacional demonstratiou at the Opera House. The public do not seem to take so much interest in the doings of these citizen soldiers as when they first appeared; but this is natural: Humanity sighs for something new, and the Tiros and Bomberos now seem quite like old friends.

There will be a splendid banquet and ball to-morrow night at Montevideo, given by Counsellor Netto, the Brazilian Minister, to the ex-President of the Republic, Colonel Latorre. All Montevidean High Life is going to this entertainment.

We hear that the celebrated Argentine explorer, Mr. F. P. Moreno, will not go back to the South, but intends to start for Europe about the end of this month.

Telegrams from Olavarria announce a terrible fire in that direction, and the barracks at Fort Lavalle destroyed. No lives lost.

The sporting world is preparing for the Mercedes Races on Monday and Tuesday next. Turf men tell us it will be the best meeting held there yet. We think so too, as the Committee have gallantly thrown open the Grand Stand and whole course to the ladies, gratis, so a strong muster of the best part of creation may be expected.

There was a mild row at one of Count Patrick's seances at the Colon owing to an enthusiastic patriot writing 'Roca no sera Presidente' on a slate used in one of the tricks There was terrific shouting for some time, and the Count declared that he had never before heard such yelling; but no heads were broken, which is, after all, the main point,

The British Hospital returns for March show 31 patients on 1st; received during month 32; 30 discharged and five dead, leaving 31 in the house yesterday. The ever increasing use made of this excellent institution is shown by the fact that since the beginning of the year there have been admitted into the British Hospital two compound fractures of the thigh, both necessitating amputation, four fractures of the leg, one of them compound, one compound fracture of the foot, which had to be amputated; one compound fracture of the arm which also had to be amputated. Besides these admissions there have been a great many other accidents of a more or less serious character. The medical side has been equally busy, a great many acute febrile cases having been under treatment.

The supporters of General Sarmiento's candidature for the Presidency held a meeting on Tuesday night at the Coliseum. Everything went on smoothly inside the doors; but outside in the street some patriots of opposite politics congregated, and when the Sarmientoists came out, 'a bit of a scrimmage' ensued as naturally as ducks take to water. As far as we have heard, there was nothing beyond a smashed hat or two on either side. We hear that General Sarmiento's speech was one of the best ever delivered by the veteran statesman.

We hear from Paris that Mrs. J. W. Mackay, of Big Bonanza notoriety, has offered half a million of francs for the famous pearl necklace, once the property of the Empress Eugenie, which misfortune compelled her to sell, and which took Parisian jewellers three years to discover the pea-sized pearls to make. Sarah Bernhardt is occupied on a bust of this celebrated millionaire, who, it is commonly reported, has declined endless offers to purchase titles, from princesses downwards!!

For the information of dancing men we may state that, according to a London contemporary, the 'Liverpool Lurch' and the 'Boston Swing' are no longer the fashion, having been replaced by the 'Brighton Grip' the 'South Sea Squeeze' and the 'Kensington Cuddle.'

Said a little girl to her papa in respect to a very bold visitor; 'Who is that gentleman with all the skin over his hair.'

The Irish Relief Committee would again remind those, (few, as we are glad to find they are) who have not yet returned their subscription lists, to do so as soon as may be convenient, as it is intended to close the subscriptions at an early date. The committee purpose meeting next week, with a view to fix an absolute date, after which no subscriptions will be received.

Here is something interesting for our lady friends, sent to us yesterday by an old bachelor. Stick a pin in him:—

"It is now forty years since the supply of pins from the English factories was 20,000,000; it now stands at 50,000,000 every day. Of these, Birmingham produces 37,000,000, leaving 13,000,000 as the production of London, Stroud and Dublin, where pins are also made. The weight of wire now consumed annually is almost 2,857,120 lbs., one-eighth of which is of iron.

Dynamite has been satisfactorily tried at Monte Catillo near Tivoli, for pulverising rock adapted to the cultivation of olives.

To the Editor of the Standard,

Dear Sir,

Mr. Lawrie refutes my statement, but admits having called the fact of there being two horses of the same year and name 'a strauge coincidence.'

I only await the permission of certain correspondents to publish their letters to me on this subject to further show the public that the question should never have been mooted by Mr. Lawrie or any one else.

Yours very sincerely,
Wm. Kemmis.

P.S. I only received your paper of the 19th inst. last evening, the 27th March.

IRISH RELIEF FUND.

Buenos Ayres, April 1st, 1880.

To the Editor of the Standard

Dear Sir,

In acknowledging subscriptions to Irish Relief Fund, Mr. J. Harrington's is published as per Rev. E. Flannery. Mr. Harrington asked me, as I was coming to the city, to bring the money and leave it with Mr. Edward Casey. I did so. Owing to recent correspondence in your paper, and to avoid being misunderstood, I make this remark.

Yours, &c.,
E. Flannery.

Gold opened and remained during business hours at 30.45 cash with a firm tendency, although sellers were numerous for the end of April at 30.55; the general opinion seems to be that gold will remain steady until the Presidential election has taken place. Import houses as a rule are securing gold on long dates, to correspond to their sale of goods in currency.

Discounts in paper rather easier at 7½ to 9 per cent, more money offered on Government bills at 14 per cent. A curious anomaly is that National Government bills issued by the Government direct are discounted at 9 per cent, while the same Government bills with a "provedor's" or contractor's endorsement are negociated at 14 per cent per annum. Elsewhere it is allowed that an endorsement adds to the guarantee of a document, in this market it actually seems to affect the value of these bills.

Treasury Bonds sold afterhours at 77⅞ ex dividend; a rise of ¼ per cent on last price.

National Bank Shares in demand at 58½ cash, 53¾ end of April.

Several estancieros were busy discussing Mr Lacroze's colossal tramway scheme from the Custom House or Boca to Azul; the estimated cost is only 1½ million pats, freight for goods to be one half those charged by the railway, the general manager was named, and is a high engineering authority in this country.

Our advices from Montevideo this morning report a very dull stock market there yesterday. Nothing whatever on the black board, but a small private sale of Extraordinary Debt was made after hours at 25½. In the produce market a Buenos Ayres firm bought 600 pipes of tallow at 13½ rls fts The tallow was from the Santa Maria saladero, and 10,000 salted novillo hides from same place, 60 lbs fetched 78 rls on board. The import market was flat: part of the Orencoque's wine cargo, good brands, was sold at 34, and a cargo of Cardiff coal fetched 10 pats on board. The General Meeting of the Bolsa shareholders to name a new Committee is called for to-day; this is the third appeal to the shareholders, who disregarded two previous citations, and there was no quorum.

Our special Boca reporter gives the following:—

"The Brit. barque Kingwood entered this morning consigned to Spinetto."

The following shows the beef sales from 13th March to date:—

Messrs Sansinena & Sons report as follows on the hide and tallow market up to 30th of March:—

Sales, 10,000 salted novillo, this province, 64 lbs., at reserved price.

500 salted cow, Magdalena, 51 lbs, 49½

No stock. Sales since season opened 202,500 novillos and 3,500 cows. Last year the figures were 254,000 novillos and 7,600 cows. Killing to date 187,000 against 233,000 last year. Last price for matadero cow hides of this province 47½ novillos, and 46 cows; 2,000 hides in stock. There is no stock of beef tallow. Sales to date 6,899 pipes against 11,200 last year. The stock of mutton tallow is 1,500 bordalesas.

Our market shows little change, extreme prices being still easily obtained for all classes of merchandise. The large stocks, mostly defective, are now almost cleared out, and transactions are limited to the daily arrivals.

Our market quotations are:—

Havre and Liverpool sup.	$147-150
Do do No. 1	125-135
Antwerp, good No. 1, ...	115-120
Do inferior	90-100
Lamb's wool, accord. to class	100-130

Sheepskins—
Mataderos—¼-wooled and upwards are eagerly bought up for French account as high as 33 rls. having been paid.
Campskins—Have also advanced considerably during the fortnight the extreme rate of 39 rls. being paid in more than one instance.

Mat. full-woolled sup.	No sales or stock.
Do ¼-woolled upwards	39-33 rls.
Camp shearlings and ½-woolled.....	26-29
do do inferior	23-25
Camp full-woolled sup.	28-33 rls.
Do superior	34-39

Horse Hair—
North $145-155.
South $165-175. Enquired after.
Nutria skins—
Province $10-11
Chaco, $13½-14. Sales.

The movement in land and cattle increases daily, and there is a marked tendency to strike out towards the provinces, where good and cheap land is to be had in any quantity. A sale of 15 leagues of prime pasture land in E Rios was effected last week, the buyers several Bolivian gentlemen who intend to commence business with a stock of 20,000 cows and 50,000 sheep. Another large sale of land is bought, 200 square leagues, in Santiago del Estero, for account of a foreign firm which intends to start large sugar plantations. Nearer home, we hear of an estate near Quilmes, about a league and a half of prime land, which has been in litigation for 20 years, and just passed to the plaintiff in the case, who has received offers from several Basque dairymen and Italian chacreros to rent the whole at an annual rent of $300,000 m/c. Down in the far South, especially near Bahia Blanca, there is more doing in cattle estancias than is generally supposed. Some of those who secured lands about there through the Rio Negro Loan have been offered 500, and even 1000 per cent profit, but refuse to sell, and they are right.

The fine Allan steamer Canadian entered Montevideo to-day from Glasgow and Havre. She brings 45 passengers and a general cargo for this port.

The passengers by the Pacific Co.'s steamer Britannia will be released from quarantine to-morrow, 2nd.

The Provincial Minister of Finance has given orders to the Chief of the Revenue Department to 'execute' at once all those merchants who are in arrear in paying the Spirits Tax.

The excellent management of the Provincial Bank is again made evident by the fact that estancieros now get a preference for advances by the Board. There can be little doubt as to the soundness of this policy. No security can equal land and flocks and herds; besides, this year has proved so wonderfully prosperous with estancieros that they have to a man cleared off their old debts and do not owe a dollar.

The unprecedented price of sheepskins is attracting the attention of produce men. Mr Casey sold to-day a lot of matadero estacion sheepskins at 32 rls., which is equal to something about FORTY EIGHT REALS for a full woolled skin, a price never even dreamt of, much less quoted, before in the River Plate S,ite of the continued favorable accounts from Europe, some of the longest headed brokers in the market say there must be a topple soon from such extreme figures for sheepskins.

Mr Carlos Casares's horses, and Mr Steven's rams and bulls, were sold by Messrs Baltar & Quesada yesterday at the following prices:—

Britannia (filly) ¾ bred	$6,700, L M Campos
Ofelia do do.....	4,700, Bosch
Uncle Tom (colt) do..	6,000, A Casares
Maica do ¾ bred.....	4,000, Cardoso
Oswego do do.....	5,700, do
Orlando (Arabian) ½ do	5,000, Miranda
Indio (redomon) do...	2,500, Trolles

And Mr Stevens's—
One Lincoln ram, $4,000, Roger
" 3,400, Garcia
" 3,150, do
One Shropshire ram 3,000, Roger
One pair of draught horses, $2,600, Puig
One Durham bull, 9,000, C Morales
One pair of draught horses, 2,800, A Casares
" " 6,000, Mates

Some second hand vehicles also sold. Total $91,150.

The proposal of Mr. Victorica, Chief of the Agricultural Department, to the Minister of the Interior, for having complete statistical returns of the agricultural, pastoral and industrial condition of all the provinces of the Republic meets with general approbation. One of the greatest drawbacks to the country is the absence of reliable official data on which merchants and agriculturists can securely base their calculations. Over and over again this paper has called the attention of the authorities to this subject, and the country will feel grateful to the Chief of the Agricultural Department for the steps he has taken in the matter.

There is very serious news from Las Flores, where an epidemic is raging amongst the horned cattle. It appears that death ensues very shortly after the disease shows itself, and the farmers are much alarmed. A veterinary surgeon should be sent to make an official report about this disease.

Fray Bentos advices state that never since it was started has the Liebig Extract Company done such a great business as this season. The arrivals of cattle for the Company are so large that the neighbours are fairly astonished; nearly every day from 5000 to 7000 head come in; over 1100 are slaughtered daily; and from the 1st of last month over 20,000 head were killed up to 19th. Last week there were five ocean vessels loading at the fabrica i. e. the Nauta for England, the Lodsen do., the Roosval do, the G. Massone do, the Armando, beef for Brazil, and the Lodsen was also discharging salt from Cadiz. No River Plate enterprise can surpass the Liebig Factory for brilliant results and good management.

Messrs Oostendorp & Co., of Antwerp, report as follows under date of 3rd March:—

Hides—
Imports, 1,700 dry and 9,400 salted R. Plate
Sales, 800 dry, 5,900 salted R. Plate, 200 dry Rio Grande, and 1,100 miscellaneous.
Stock, 59,200 hides, viz: 11,400 dry, 31,500 salted R. Plate, 9,000 salted Rio Grande, 700 miscellaneous, and 6,600 horse hides.

The market has ruled very quiet, but las quotations are so far maintained.

An auction of damaged hides will shortly be held here, but so far the exact quantities to be brought forward at same are not yet known.

The quotations for following kinds of hides are:—

Dry B. Aires mat. ox, 13-15½ k. of fair quality f.1.40-45
Do do do do, 13-15½ k. of secondary quality f.1.34-40.
Do do do cows, 10-10½ k. of fair quality f.1.35-43.
B. Airs saladero ox, summer hair—
15/20 k., f.72-75
20/25 k., f.80-83
25/32 k., f.87-90
32/40 k., f.83-87
B. Aires saladero cows, summer hair—
14/20 k., f.73-75
20/25 k., f.86-89
25/58 k., f.96-91

Buenos Aires salted matadero hides, summer hair, are worth f.78.82 for 64/65 lbs. ox, and f.72-77 for 50 lbs. cows; River and Montevideo would command about f.5 less.

On delivery.—No transactions have been reported here.

Floating Cargoes.—No sales have been mentioned in England.

In Liverpool business has remained very quiet, and 3,000 salted B. A., 31 3/5 to 34 lbs, found takers at 12s 6d (a decline of 1s 6d on December rates), besides 2,547 dry Montevideo 11½ lb. (unassorted) at 7s 4d each round.

Leather—
Is quiet in England, buyers awaiting the result of the Bristol fair which will be held to-day.

In Germany business is little active and will probably continue so until the Frankfort and Leipzig fairs which begin respectively on the 24th March and 5th April.

Tallow—
Stock 402/1, 764/2 pipes mutton and 25/1, 209/2 pipes beef.

This article rules dull and only 25/2 pipes mutton found takers at f87½.

The nominal quotations are f.88 89 for beef and f87-87½ for mutton, which shows a new decline of 2 o/o.

In England the market continues depressed, South American beef is retailing very slowly in Liverpool at 38.

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Roduent Hall, Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

Base de venta 400,000 ps. legua

El Viernes 14 de Abril, a las 4 de la tarde, procederemos a la venta de 2 leguas y 689 mls de legua de campo superior, situado en el partido de Rojas, conocido bajo el nombre de Las 3 Flores.

Este campo, perfectamente situado, quedando a 6 leguas del pueblo de Rojas y a 5 del pueblo de Pergamino, es de inmense porvenir, pues el ferro carril al Pergamino quedara terminado a fines de este año.

Esta magnifica estancia tiene todo su frente al rio de Rojas y linda con los antiguos campos de Llavallol, hoy de E. Casey, con el ejido del pueblo de Colon, Dr M Porcel de Peralta, con D Octavio de la Barra y otros, y por el otro costado con D Adolfo Sierra y Unzue. Esta señalado en el registro grafico con el nombre de Indalecio Sarlo.

Las condiciones generales de esta campo son superiores por sus buenos partos, pues es aparente no solo para vacas sino que admite bien un numero regular de ovejas.

La base fijada como base de venta es infima en relacion a la calidad del campo, su posicion, sus condiciones ventajosas y de los precios obtenidos por campos inmediatos al que ofrecemos.

Para aquellos que empleen capitales en campos les recordaremos la reciente venta de tierras publicas, unas en el partido de Tres Arroyos, inmediato al arroyo Pillanuico Grande por el precio de $320,000 legua, y otra en el partido de Bolivar a 340,000 id. Esto es exacto ademas es menester tener presente la diferencia de inmediacion con centros importantes.

Por planos y datos sobre estos campos a nuestra casa San Martin 51.

Las personas de la campaña pueden solicitarlo por carta y sera inmediatamente remitido.
